

atlanta autism consortium

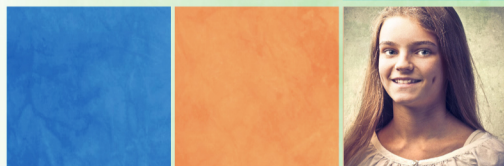

atlanta autism consortium

"Connecting the Atlanta Autism Community"

The Atlanta Autism Consortium, Inc. (AAC) brings the spectrum of perspectives concerning autism together in a safe and constructive environment.

We aim to foster better understanding and cultivate multifaceted collaborations among the wide variety of autism community stakeholders in the the greater Atlanta area, including researchers, clinicians, educators, advocates, families, and individuals with autism.

Doing together
what no one organization
can do
on its own.

atlanta autism consortium

"Connecting the Atlanta Autism Community"

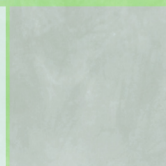

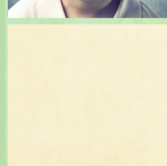

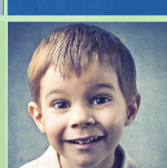

The Atlanta Autism Consortium, Inc. (AAC) brings the spectrum of perspectives concerning autism together in a safe and constructive environment.

We aim to foster better understanding and cultivate multifaceted collaborations among the wide variety of autism community stakeholders in the the greater Atlanta area, including researchers, clinicians, educators, advocates, families, and individuals with autism.

Doing together
what no one
organization
can do
on its own.

Our Members

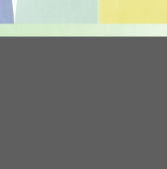

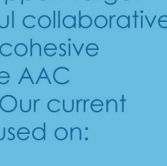

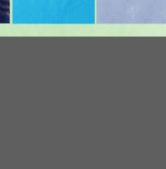

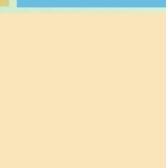

Currently about 600:
Including Researchers,
Clinicians, Educators, Advocates, Families, and Individuals with Autism.

Special Interest Groups

These SIGs support targeted and fruitful collaborative activities for cohesive subsets of the AAC community. Our current SIGs are focused on:

Adult Transition
Autism Insurance Reform Autism Awareness and Education through the Arts
PreK-12 Education Research Collaboration

Public Facing Events

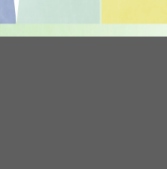

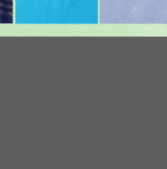

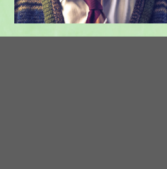

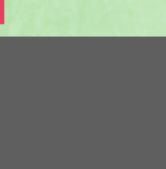

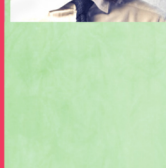

Special AAC Events
Awareness and educational events, forums and conferences developed in partnership with community members and other local and national organizations

Community Building Activities

These activities facilitate the sharing of knowledge and resources, as well as address concerns across the lifespan and across stakeholder perspectives.

Monthly meetings on various topics of interest Consortium Newsletter
Annual Research Symposium

JOIN US

atlanta autism consortium

The Atlanta Autism Consortium is a Georgia Non-Profit, Tax-Exempt, Corporation under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

HOW YOU CAN GET INVOLVED:

Membership in the Atlanta Autism Consortium is open to anyone in the greater Atlanta area. Everyone is welcome.

DONATE:

As a Non-Profit organization, the AAC relies on philanthropists like you to pursue its activities for the benefit the whole community. Financial contributions to the AAC are tax deductible!

You may also volunteer your time and expertise to the AAC and help to build our community!

For more info, to join the Consortium, or make a donation go to the AAC website:
www.atlantaautismconsortium.org

Contact either Gregory Abowd president@atlantaautismconsortium.org or Anne-Pierre Goursaud
executive-director@atlantaautismconsortium.org for more information.